Dear Sir/Madam

ASIC has received notification that you have authorised one or more advisers and/or authorised representatives.

We have allocated the following representative numbers:

001316261 MIRUNNERS AUSTRALIA PTY LTD

001316262 Darren Clifford Halpin

Please note that this letter only includes representatives who have been given a new representative number, not representatives that already had a representative number.

We will also contact each representative that has been given a new representative number.

The representative number is a unique identifier that will help to ensure that all information about the representative(s) maintained by ASIC, is correct.

If a representative's details change in the future (e.g. product authorisations, principal place of business, professional association membership etc.), you must update the representative's details with ASIC.

For further information, visit www.asic.gov.au/far

Yours sincerely
